The Headquarters of the Florida Air National Guard is located at the Joint Forces Headquarters, St Francis Barracks in St. Augustine. Its mission is to provide leadership, guidance, and peacetime command and control of all Florida Air National Guard units to meet both federal and state missions.

GET READY NOW! 4 SIMPLE STEPS TO TOTAL READINESS The Family Readiness Plan

Military families are often told to "get ready" for military separation, but are rarely told how. The four steps below provide a fool-proof definition, along with pages you can download, print, and complete. Family readiness, like mission readiness, must begin with a sound plan...a Family Readiness Plan (FRP).

A FRP is a working plan that clearly designates the care of loved ones and personal property during deployments. We cannot emphasize how vital a FRP is to the well-being of your family (please click here for WHY). You need a FRP whether you are a single Guard member, or married, whether you have children or not. In fact, certain members are actually required to keep a copy on file in their orderly room*.

The four easy steps, below, will help you create a FRP. Please don't delay. If you follow them, we promise that you WILL be ready when the call comes.

Step 1

Get a folder with at least 5 tabs or dividers.

• READINESS CHECKLIST

The Readiness Checklist, below, provides a very detailed list of the steps necessary to prepare for military separation, or any crisis. It covers the four steps to a Family Readiness Plan (FRP), along with other helpful ideas. Please review and update it prior to each separation. You can download it here in PDF format, print it, complete it, and maintain it as TAB E in your FRP.

PERSONAL READINESS:

- Prepare a Family Readiness Plan (FRP) following the 4 simple steps, below.
- Step 1: Get a folder with at least 5 tabs or dividers.
- Step 2: Print out and complete each of the following forms, making a separate tab in the folder for each of them.
 - Tab A: Communication Information Form
 - Tab B: Powers of Attorney
 - Tab C: Will
 - Tab D: Document Locator Form
 - Tab E: Readiness Checklist
- Step 3: Keep your FRP near a phone and show a trusted third party of the contents and location of the
